SOCIAL SERVICE CLUB RESUMES WORK.

The first meeting of the fall of the Tri-City Social Service club will be held Monday evening at the River view tea room in the Paterson building, Davenport, resuming work after the summer recess.

LINDQUEST, TENOR, AT AUGUSTANA TUESDAY.

Albert Lindquest, tenor, who appeared in recital at Augustana church chapel Tuesday evening Sept. 23 received his first public recognition when at the age of 20 he won the place of tenor soloist in a contest held in Chicago for the purpose of selecting a singer for a performance of an operatic pageant called "Darkness and Light" at the Chicago church.

The pageant had a successful run of five weeks at the Auditorium theatre, and the Chicago dailies were enthusiastic over the gifted young tenor, Lindquest, who was entirely unknown. He sang like a "thrilling tenor voice" and "a young artist with splendid technique and a voice of especially beautiful upper range."

CELEBRATE 50 YEARS WEDDED LIFE.

Fifty years ago yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hostock wedded life in their native country of England and to celebrate the happy occasion of the golden anniversary kept open house yesterday at their home, 1322 Fourth avenue.

No formal reception had been arranged for the day because of the fact that Mrs. Hostock is an invalid, but the day was crowded full of happy events for the venerable couple. Cards, letters and congratulatory telegrams poured in from New York, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Oklahoma and England and many telegrams informed them of their well wishes and congratulations.

HERBARD COMING AGAIN TO TRI-CITIES.

Harold Hubbard, musical critic and lecturer, has been engaged by the music department of the Moine Woman's club to appear in that city the last of this month, a bit of news which will make music lovers in the tri-cities rejoice. Mr. Hubbard is a general favorite. He has been heard in Moine twice before, once when he gave a lecture on the history of music and last year when he lectured on the opera Minna Vaux.

Tickets for the lecture will be put on sale as soon as the exact date is decided and a special price is to be made for students of music. Inasmuch as grand opera is to be given in the tri-cities during the holidays by the San Carlo opera company under auspices of the Tri-City Musical association, Mr. Hubbard will probably be asked to lecture on one of the pieces to be given at that time.

FASHION SHOW ATTRACTS CROWD.

Living models held the close attention of more than 1,000 women yesterday afternoon on the second floor of the Lundt & Co. store in Moine, where the firm presented a style show as the big feature of a brilliant opening that began Thursday afternoon and continued through today.

The fact that local young women were chosen to exploit the creations made the style show doubly attractive and interesting and there was a splendid choice of various types to display the beautiful suits, dresses, coats and hats.

MILLEN-BARR ENGAGEMENT.

Dr. Louise Newton Miller, of Moine, has announced the approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Mauda Ames Miller to Charles Cyrus Barr of Chicago. The wedding will be an event of Saturday, Oct. 19, and will be celebrated in the home of the bride, Miss Miller attended the Moine high school and graduated from Vassar college in the class of 1911. Mr. Barr is the western representative of the Allport Jewelry Manufacturing company of New York.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS. MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON. Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am in trouble and I want your advice. I am a married woman and have been married 27 years. I have two grown daughters. My husband is very mean to me. He drives me away from home and gets drunk. I am good to him and I work and help him all I can and I am always kind and good, but it seems he likes other women best. What would you advise me to do, stay with him or go and live with a married daughter? A TROUBLED WIFE.

You are too good to your husband and might not for a minute to put up with such treatment. I would not go to my married daughter's if I were you, if there were any other possible solution of the problem. You could get a divorce and marry, but of course there is always danger of losing the alimony as your husband's earnings might not be sufficient to pay it. Since you have no little children dependent upon you, I would advise you to leave your husband unless he improves soon and get work to support yourself.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am an orphan and I have considerable money of my own. For two years, ever since my mother's death, I have been going with a young doctor. He was a medical student at the time mother died and happened to be home for a vacation at the time of the funeral. He came with his parents, and although we had known each other for years, that was the first time he showed interest in me.

I think I loved him from the start but I often wonder how much he really cares for me. He says that he loves me and is really very kind, but somehow I can't get over the impression that it is my money he is after. He has a fairly good practice considering that he has only been at it a year, and he makes quite a little money, but he spends it all on himself. He wants me to marry him at once so that we can settle down for the winter and I have a home of my own. There is nothing I would rather do than this but I know that he will not have enough to support me and I will have to see some of my own money.

A WIDOWED MOTHER. Get a package of Larkspur and steep it, making a strong tea. Use this tea for your little girl. It is very good for her. I would like to know how you get on. I would like to go to football games with her. I would like to know how you get on. I would like to go to football games with her.

LAZY LACEY LUNCHEON. This is a novel luncheon which the hospitable housewife who keeps no maid can prepare and then enjoy with her guests. It is eliminated much of the serving and also the dishwashing which inevitably awaits her when her friends have left for their homes.

Set table with napkins, large plate, knife, fork, spoons, glass, cup and saucer at each place. Fill cups and glasses before guests are seated. Have on the table a plate of thin bread and butter sandwiches and a very large chop plate with the luncheon arranged as follows:

In the center of chop plate place a few round slices of cold hot peas. Stand lettuce leaves around this to hold the dish. In a circle close to this place the salad—a lettuce leaf holding tomato with its center scooped out and replaced by chopped cabbage, celery and green peppers mixed with salad dressing. In circles close to this place slices of meat, cold boiled ham, roast beef or roast veal with a baked potato on top. For outer circle use radishes, green onions or pickles and parsley.

Should more hot things be preferred, use stuffed green peppers in place of salad and small boiled baked carrots instead of the radishes. A large fork and spoon are passed so that each guest may take a portion or, in old-fashioned words, "they may help themselves."

The dessert should be previously prepared and placed on a buffet or easily where it may be served. Berries with cream and cake, gelatin with sliced fruit and cake, or prune whip and cake, would be appropriate. Stuffed Peppers—Wash and remove seeds from peppers. Into each one teaspoon washed rice, pinch of salt, a little butter, all each with raw tomatoes cut up or with canned tomatoes. Stand upright in a pan which has water about two inches deep in it. Cover and bake in moderate oven about three-fourths hour. Remove from water when ready to serve.

THE TABLE. Beef Loaf for Slicing Cold—Mix well all together half pound chopped beef, half pound chopped veal, about a cupful of chopped ham and a little chopped sweet or salt pork. Add some chopped parsley, green peppers and onion about a tablespoonful of each and salt and pepper to taste. Place four hard-boiled eggs in a row in a loaf pan, press mixture thoroughly around and to cover eggs. Bake slowly one hour, then serve, sliced cold, with chili sauce or catsup. Dampfrout (a complete meal)—Chop cabbage very fine and boil till tender, then drain dry. Cut an apple into small pieces and chop enough onion to give a slight taste to the dish. Mix all, season to taste, then roast a few minutes over the fire in a little butter. Meanwhile, cut several slices of ham into tiny dice and fry till nearly crisp, stir this with a little sugar and mix with the beef loaf. Put into large vessel, pour entirely with water, let boil at least 30 minutes, pour into large bowl and drain over night. Boil juice about 25 minutes, then add one cup sugar to two of juice, add juice of a lemon and piece of alum about the size of a pea of coffee. Boil until it becomes thick when tried on a cold saucer.

Sliced Peach Pickles—Pare peaches (stone-stones preferable), make syrup of four pounds sugar and one pint best vinegar, add spices (whole cloves and cinnamon bark) in muslin bag and boil until tender. Remove with silver fork. All jars, then boil down syrup, pour over fruit and seal.

Accounted For. "That man is choking with rage." "I know why. He had to swallow his wrath."—Exchange.

SCRIPTURE.

Isaiah 52:10.

Now, therefore, what have I seen, saith the Lord, that they that are taken away for sinners? they that are taken away for sinners? they that are taken away for sinners? they that are taken away for sinners?

Therefore my people shall know my name, therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doeth signs and wonders. How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God reigneth.

They watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing; for they shall see eye to eye, when the Lord shall bring again Zion. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the Lord hath comforted his people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem.

The Lord hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.
